Tell me about the Conference Deal:

Greek Conference is an annual leadership training and development conference, held in Charlotte, Feb. 16-18th. Join more than 300 other Greeks from the east and south-east for this amazing event. It's a conference that is put on for Greeks by Greeks and focuses on how you can grow as a Greek man or woman with God at the center of that growth. Whether you have known Jesus for years, or still have many questions about what it means to follow him – there is a place for you at this Conference. In addition to three General Sessions, you also take part in one of five Breakouts designed to deepen your knowledge, leadership and application on campus.

Our speaker this year is Thomas Daniel. Originally from Atlanta, Thomas graduated from Davidson College in 1997. During college he was an active member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. After graduating, he lived in Japan for two years while teaching English and coaching basketball. Thomas became a Christian through a Japanese house church Thomas has previously served as the Director of College Ministry and Kairos Citywide Worship before being ordained in May, 2003. He enjoys reading, playing and watching basketball, and spending time with family and friends.

Greek Conference is typically $155 for two nights in the Charlotte Downtown Blake Hotel, conference fees, and a Southern barbeque on Saturday night. Sign up for both Conference and Ski Greek at the same time for only $265 (before 12.15) and $290 before Jan. 15th.
