

Meeting with God

Take a few moments to quiet yourself. Thank Jesus for his presence with you and ask the Holy Spirit to lead you in this time.

What scripture did you read lately?

Re-read the passage, asking the Spirit to clearly show you how the passage intersects with your life.

Perhaps God has for you:

- A word of encouragement
- A challenge or correction
- An irritation
- Something to show you about himself or yourself
- A word for your campus fellowship

Spend some time writing out your prayers to God around the topic he is addressing through the scripture.

Is there someone you should share what God is speaking to you about for the sake of accountability and support?

Pray for the day, that you would have an open heart to receive all Jesus has for you.
